Mountain Weather Forecast

Ground Conditions Supplement

Date: Monday 18 March Location: Helvellyn summit at 15:00 Full report: Another mild day with a few showers but plenty of sunshine. The Lakeland fells and are essentially snow-free, apart from a few small patches that remain on steep north and east-facing slopes above 900m. These are found predominantly on Helvellyn and neighbouring fells and are not in areas that present any hazards to walkers. Despite today's mild temperatures, the wind chill was still well below freezing meaning it was a bit chilly to hang around and enjoy the views if you weren't correctly equipped. Full winter clothing (warm and waterproof) including hats and gloves, and equipment including a map, compass and headtorch are all essential. Temperature: plus 2.7C, Maximum wind speed 28.4mph, Wind chill: minus 4.8C, Average wind speed: 24.1mph
